

process. Is that not correct?

SENATOR DECAMP: (Response inaudible.)

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes, and Mr. Speaker, I wanted to ask you, we've discussed this previously but I wanted to ask you how you wanted to handle it.

PRESIDENT: Senator...

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I suggest that we do this as suggested by Senator Beutler inasmuch as there is no need to discuss one of these and then the other one separately. As Senator Beutler has suggested, if we need to discuss them both, they should be both done at the same time rather than separating them and spending needless time, perhaps, by doing it now so I suggest we follow that recommendation.

PRESIDENT: There has been a request to lay over LB 691. Senator DeCamp, you are the introducer. Do you have his agreement, Senator Beutler?

SENATOR BEUTLER: I think that the Speaker is simply pulling it from the agenda. There is no need for a motion or further action.

PRESIDENT: Very well. It's been removed from the agenda for the time being then. We next move to LB 593.

CLERK: Mr. President, 593 was the bill that was introduced by Senator Barrett. (Read title.) Mr. President, the bill was considered yesterday by the Legislature. At that time the committee amendments were adopted to the bill. I now have pending a series of amendments.

PRESIDENT: May we have order in the Chamber, please. (Gavel.) Senator Barrett, I would ask you to go through an explanation of the bill, as you wish, on this, and inform us again.

SENATOR BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. President and members. I think the bill was pretty well cussed and discussed yesterday before we adjourned. It is an effort to modify the Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Act, which was passed in 1975. I think there were eight members of this body
